About Our Support Groups

Alzheimer's Association Desert Southwest Chapter offers a variety of specialized Support Groups. From general community to Veteran's to Early Stage, our groups are ready to help you along your journey.

Trained facilitators meet with small groups to share information, feelings and experiences, build new skills, and offer peer support and ideas. Solicitations or research projects are not conducted at group meetings.

There is no cost for attending and no commitment to come back – just a family of friends who care.

This listing is subject to change. Please call your regional office or visit our website for more information.
